

Hydraform Building System used in Sudan on several projects including;

Rumbek Rendezvous: The First Vice President Salva Kiir recently visited the Rumbek Rendezvous office complex being built by South Sudan Logistics, with the Hydraform Building System. This complex is earmarked for various NGO's looking for office space and accommodation in Rumbek.

Homes and buildings are being built in Sudan using the HYDRAFORM building system

Mustard seed international an American missionary is building using the Hydraform Building system in Akot. The project is the first phase of the construction of clinics in Akot. The entire project is being built using Hydraform compressed cement blocks.

HYDRAFORM's provides full back up, service and training in Sudan. Hydraform has qualified training staff that conduct training in Khartoum, Rumbek, Akot, Yei and Juba. For more details on any Sudan projects contact marketing@hydraform.com